

I find according to the census that in 1910 there were in the United States only 40,339 ^{negroes} who were foreign born and only 473 of these had come from Africa.

Philadelphia Public Ledger

May 1914

CITIES' COLORED POPULATION

Washington Leads in Percentage,
With Philadelphia Third.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Nearly one-third of the population of Washington is colored, according to the compilation of the Census Bureau issued today. Philadelphia stands third of cities in its percentage of colored population. The total estimated population of Washington this year is 353,378, of which 101,339 are colored.

In Philadelphia it is estimated that the population this year will be 1,657,810, of which 91,652 are reported as colored. In 1910 the number was 85,637.

Carlisle, which was the safety harbor for slaves during the Civil War and in the "underground railroad" period, contains 1153 colored people and 9436 whites. Of the population of Pittsburgh this year 537,479 are whites and 27,399 colored.

In Chester the white population this year is estimated at 35,419 and the colored 5055.